Frenchy and the Punk

Through their unmistakable blend of influences ranging from post-punk and dark folk to new wave and goth, Frenchy and the Punk have forged their own distinct path since 2005, touring across the US and Europe with their artful two-person powerhouse of sound. They draw inspiration from post-punk legends such as The Cure, the upbeat energy and percussive textures of Adam and the Ants, the bewitching mystique of Siouxsie and the Banshees, and the quirky charm of The B-52's. This blend of influences has led them to craft a sound that is both nostalgic and refreshingly modern and authentic, all delivered in an unorthodox way.

They create a wall of sound for two people by way of live looping and acoustic percussion creating a high-energy and danceable show with songs about seances, immortality, dancing in the woods at night, mind phantoms, and chasing inner demons into the void. Their most recent album, Midnight Garden, is available worldwide. FrenchyAndThePunk.com

Guitar Army of One

On his latest album The Wave Files, guitarist Scott Helland (also of Frenchy and the Punk) conjures up images of secret agents, high-speed chases, and hidden agendas through his intricate layered compositions. His mix of surf guitar techniques, such as reverb-drenched chords, lightning-fast tremolo picking, and tremolo bar vibrato—albeit with a Bigsby bridge pedal—creates a sonic landscape that is both nostalgic and forward-thinking. Combining the thrilling sounds of spy-themed instrumental surf guitar music with punk vitality, Guitar Army of One takes listeners on a sonic adventure to the realms of intrigue, danger, and surf-soaked excitement.

Guitar Army of One's live performances are a spectacle as the stage becomes a laboratory of sound, as layers of guitar riffs, bass lines, and percussion intertwine and overlap, creating a lush and dynamic musical tapestry. Armed with a guitar, loop pedals, drum pads, and an array of effects pedals, Helland creates a symphony of sound right before your eyes. GuitarArmyOfOne.com

Underworld Initiation of the Tarot

with Christopher Penczak

Occult tradition tells us that the secrets of magick and initiation are encoded in the images of the Tarot. Drawing on teachings from The History and Practice of Magic by Paul Christian and Tarot of the Bohemians by Papus, we will explore a tradition of magickal healing and empowerment rooted in the mythos of Egypt but applicable to anyone through the art of the Tarot. Experience a guided visionary journey on the initiatory path of evolution through twelve gates from the Major Arcana. Experience the portals of transformation in the underworld, their guardians, and teachers, through the twelve “hours” of the night, starting with the Sphinx of the Wheel of Fortune through death, rebirth, and empowerment in The World.

The Four Sacred Quests of the Tarot

with Christopher Penczak

The wand, blade, cup, and stone are the four classic hallows of the magician, used by Witches to evoke the four elements and work their Craft. Each of the four elemental suits of Tarot embodies a magickal quest to find and embody a deep magickal virtue — Will, Truth, Compassion, and Sovereignty. We recognize these quests hidden in the trials of life. Through ritual, we can invoke these four powers to better understand our magickal tools. Through empowered meditation, commune with spirit teachers to guide us on the quest. Experience a quest through meditative journey and learn to find the sacred hallows within.

The Dark Mirror of Magick

with Christopher Penczak

Mirror magick has a long history and is used in the magick of protection, reflection, self-esteem, amplification, and psychic ability. The dark mirror is a classic tool of occultism and Witchcraft, used for scrying into the astral for information on the past, present, and future, as well as a gateway to project magickal force and to travel spiritually. Learn instruction on making an effective dark mirror, from the simple to the more traditional, and empower it to reveal hidden things and open the way.

Christopher Penczak is a modern Witch working in the Temple of Witchcraft tradition and community he helped co-found. His practice focuses on the intersection of Love, Will, and Wisdom as an ethos for today's Witch, and focuses upon relationships with the plant realm, the patterns of astrology, traditional occultism, and the use of trance in the Craft. He is the author of many books, including the award-winning Temple of Witchcraft series, The Plant Spirit Familiar, and The Mighty Dead, as well as the co-owner of Copper Cauldron Publishing. He teaches both in-person and online, offering mystery school and seminary training. (ChristopherPenczak.com, TempleOfWitchcraft.org)

After Dark — The Interpretation of the Occult in Popular Media with CoyoteSkyWoman

In the history of the small screen, shows featuring magical principles have always been very popular. With the advent of more recent programs such as Supernatural, The Magicians, Evil, and even Hazbin Hotel and Helluva Boss, there has been a broader exploration of occult concepts. In a lot of these shows, the content is darker and not meant for younger audiences due to their adult themes. What they do have, however, is a more (or less) accurate portrayal of magical beliefs from various occult traditions, including entities and symbology. This workshop will discuss how the inclusion of these enhances and enriches the worlds the creators have envisioned, as well as broadening the awareness of these ideas to a wider audience.

CoyoteSkyWoman has been a member of the local pagan community for over 30 years. A practicing shaman, her experience has included a diverse background, including land work, energy rebalancing, cleansings, channeling, and spirit work. She is the author of three fantasy novels and spends her days tormenting students with the English language.

The Astrology of Trauma and Transformation

with Patrick Flaherty

We'll begin by looking at Saturn, Chiron, and the three outer planets—Uranus, Neptune, and Pluto—as signifiers of possible trauma in the birth chart. Finally, we'll examine the upcoming powerful alignments of these planets in 2025-26 and how they will affect us individually. Bring your chart or your birth data for a live mini-reading.

Patrick Flaherty has studied a wide range of disciplines, including Eastern religions, Western esoteric traditions, and trauma work. His unique approach to astrology blends these influences, and he hosts a podcast called Deep Astrology.

The Amduat ("What is in the Netherworld") chronicles the sun god Re's perilous journey from dusk to dawn. But the Amduat isn't just for gods and the deceased—it offers a powerful chronicle of transformation and rebirth that applies to our conscious and subconscious minds. We will explore these concepts and how they can help us move forward in our lives.

Born and raised in Pennsylvania, artist and author Sophia Kelly Shultz has led a colorful life. Educated in Egyptology at the University of Pennsylvania, she spent many happy hours researching different aspects of the discipline. She has followed a non-traditional shamanic path that connects particularly with rocks and running water. Her practice also includes counseling others and teaching that "creativity" does not mean "creating things that other people will like."

Introduction to Bone Reading

with Valentine & Irena Stormcrow

Bone reading is an ancient form of divination that has been used by many cultures for thousands of years. This class will be covering the basics and uses of bone readings and how to apply it to your personal practice.

Guided Meditation: Plant the Seeds of the Soul

with Irena Stormcrow

Guided meditations are a journey to the inner planes with the purpose of growth or getting the answers you have been seeking and sometimes both. Come join in a guided meditation led by Irena Stormcrow where she will lead you on the journey of planting the seeds of the soul and bringing forth growth in the new year.

Main Ritual

with Valentine & Irena Stormcrow

Halfway between Ostara and Beltane, the Earth awakens and Spring has begun. Come and celebrate Spring with Serenity Circle as they call upon the spirits to empower us for the year ahead as the wheel turns from dark to light. Bring new purchases from the market or your magical accouterments from home to be blessed/re-blessed. Ritual will feature cleansing, wine and cakes, a guided meditation, and more.

Leaders of the Serenity Circle coven based in Marlborough, NH, with 28 combined years of Pagan practice. Serenity Circle is a second-generation eclectic coven that practices a blend of several European traditions. Valentine is a Norse godhi with roots in European shamanism and has been Pagan since he was 13. Irena grew up in a Pagan household, is a Hekatean priestess, a practitioner of both green and hearth witchcraft, and an adept of the healing arts.

Shamanism/Animism

with Dr. Adhi Two-Owls

Shamanism and Animism are closely related spiritual systems that involve creating relationships with nature and non-ordinary reality. In this offering, Dr. Adhi explains their differences, explores their overlap, and discusses how they enhance each other in practice. This workshop includes a guided meditation, a discussion of sacred tools, and an open Q&A session.

Shaman Healing Circle

with Dr. Adhi Two-Owls

We will make offerings and prayers to the earth and all its beings, sing to the spirits, journey, rattle, and drum for healing across all time and space. (Bring a rattle and/or drum if you have one.)

Dr. Adhi Two-Owls is an artist, educator, and healer who integrates visual art, Indigenous healing, and shamanic practices to foster wellness and deepen connections with nature. With 30 years of experience, she specializes in traditional Indigenous healing, sound healing, herbalism, and ritual work.

Death, The Tower, The Devil — Oh My!

with Willow Violette

Some people fear the Devil, the Death, or the Tower card when they appear in a reading. However, these moments offer us a time to pause and reflect. Let's discuss the ways we can harness their energy and embrace change to pivot toward a better outcome.

Willow is a practicing Witch, certified medium, and healer. She is currently studying to be ordained at the Church of Eternal Light and walks her path with the Dark Goddesses. She teaches classes on shadow work and working with dark deities at her church and has taught at a local shop in Collinsville, CT.

Sacred Masculine

with Kirk White

Is this even a thing? If so, what is it, how does it differ from cultural stereotypes, and why or how would anyone ritually work with it in non-toxic ways? More of a moderated discussion than a lecture, this session invites participants to share their thoughts and experiences on the topic of the Sacred Masculine in spiritual work.

Geomantic Divination

with Kirk White

Geomancy was one of the seven “forbidden arts” banned by canon law in 1456—probably because it was so popular among all social classes. Resembling a mix of astrology and the I Ching, it is both simple and complex, easy to practice and yet multilayered. Don't you want to learn one of the forbidden arts?

Kirk is a popular national speaker on Paganism, magick, and esotericism. He founded the Church of the Sacred Earth, Vermont's first legally recognized Pagan church. He also founded Cherry Hill Seminary, a Pagan ministry program, and served as National Co-First Officer of the Covenant of the Goddess (North America's oldest and largest association of Witches).

Panel Discussion

The Use of Divination Throughout the Ages

Panelists: Diana Harris, Christopher Penczak, Sophia Kelly Shultz, Dr. Adhi Two-Owls, and Kirk White

Moderator: CoyoteSkyWoman

We are proud to present a panel discussion exploring divination and how it has changed through the centuries—from our Neolithic ancestors to modern times.

This panel will take an in-depth look at how different forms of divination have developed, how they are used today, and whether we rely too much (or too little) on their insights. Attendees will gain a deeper understanding of various divination methods, their strengths and weaknesses, and guidance on choosing the best tool for different situations.

Join us for a fascinating discussion with some of our most respected guest presenters. This is not an event to be missed!

Greetings! I'm Michele, or as I am known in the RenFaire world, Lady M. I am a maker and creator of cute and practical accessories for mindful purposes.

I sew bags, divination mats, pouches, and more. I'm from Vermont and do events all over the North East.

Lady M's Shoppe is my silver lining, started during Covid. I started making masks, and the love of sewing returned. I then expanded into making bags and so much more.

I am thankful and grateful for all who have blessed me and my business.

Stop by and say hello.

Blessed Be

We start the evening with dance performances as an offering to the community. Enjoy the works of cultural dance, fusion dance and movement artists from all around New England. We honor the power and practice of divination through music and the visual art of dance. Then stay for a Drum Circle lead by professional percussionist, Dave Curry. Become part of the heartbeat of the Magickal Marketplace Community. Dance the night away in an open and freeing dance space. Step into a world of magick, music, percussion, and community.

You can find the bio for Zabel and the Zabellies on the Main Stage page or on our website.

Drum Circle with Dave Curry

Dave will lead an open drum circle that welcomes all ages and skill levels. He will start things off with some basic instruction on how to play some of the common drum types, as well as teaching you some of the most recognizable drum rhythms that are popular in drum circles. There will also be an opportunity for people to “freestyle” or spontaneously improvise rhythms on the spot. If you have your own drum or percussion gadgets, bring them along. There will be loaner drums available for borrowing on a first come, first serve basis. Dancers are also welcome in the circle, and poi spinners or hoopers are welcome outside the circle so as not to bonk anyone on the head.

Opening Blessing Ritual

On our 12th year, there will be an Opening Ritual on Friday evening at this year’s Magickal Marketplace. Join Val & Irena Stormcrow and the Serenity Circle Coven the Opening Blessing Ritual. We will be honoring the spirits and elementals of our event space. ## It's Not All About Death: Reading the Egyptian Amduat for the Living with Sophia Kelly Shultz

One of the most significant of the so-called “Egyptian Underworld Books,” the Amduat, literally “What is in the Netherworld” chronicles the sun god Re’s perilous journey as he travels from dusk to dawn. But the scope of the Amduat stretches far beyond gods and the deceased; within the registers of often bizarre and confusing figures, we find a chronicle of transformation and rebirth that can be applied to both our conscious and subconscious minds, and thus to the ways in which we approach our experiences. Accompanying the sun god through the twelve hours of the night, we will explore some of these concepts and how they can help us move forward in our lives.

The Interpretation of the Occult in Popular Media with CoyoteSkyWoman

In the history of the small screen, shows featuring magical principles have always been very popular. With the advent of more recent programs such as Supernatural, The Magicians, Evil, and even Hazbin Hotel and, more importantly, its companion show, Helluva Boss, there has been a broader exploration of occult concepts. In a lot of these shows, the content is darker and not meant for younger audiences due to the adult themes. What these do have, however, is a more (or less) accurate portrayal of magical beliefs from various occult traditions, including entities and symbology. This workshop will discuss how the inclusion of these enhance and enrich the worlds the creators have envisioned, as well as broadening the awareness of these ideas to a wider audience.
